June 2, 2025.

The Political Ombudsman,
Electoral Commission of Jamaica,
43, Duke Street.
Kingston

ATTENTION: Ms. Llofraun Thompson

Dear Commissioners,

The People's National Party (PNP) wishes to report for the immediate attention of the Political Ombudsman, six material breaches of the Political Code of Conduct by the Leader of the Jamaica Labour Party (JLP) Mr. Andrew Holness during an address to the JLP's West Central St. James conference held in Montego Bay on June 1, 2025.

In response to the PNP's announced protest set for June 2, 2025, at 9.00 a.m. at the National Heroes Circle for which Police permission was approved, Mr. Holness told his audience, "I want every labourite wherever you are, to protest in your workplace, to protest in the market, to protest wherever you are". Indeed, one such demonstration was held within meters of the PNP protest. One media house reported "members of the JLP have heeded the call of the Prime Minister."

This call for confrontationist protests constitutes six material breaches of the Code of Political Conduct, signed by both parties and which governs conduct during the campaign. The statement breached Appendix 1, Clause 1 (a), (c), and (e), Clause 3 (a) and (b) and Clause 4 (a).

The PNP considers the statement to be most egregious and potentially dangerous in inciting conduct specifically eschewed by the Code of Political Conduct. Consequently, the PNP seeks the intervention of the Political Ombudsman.

We await your early response.

Yours sincerely,

Colin Campbell,
Campaign Administrator.
